SUIT AGAINST W. R. CASTLE. Immediately at the conclusion of the above trial the case of Mary Montano vs. W. R. Castle, for an accounting. was called.

The plaintiff claims that she owned a piece of land in Manoa valley consist-ing of eleven acres, which Mr. Castle sold to Wm. C. Achi for the sum of $25,000. She further alleges that she owed to the defendant sums which he was to keep out of the money obtained for the land. That he sent her a statement showing a balance due her of $6,-000, which he was to invest for her for a term of three years at 7 per cent, taking a mortgage on the dairy property of Mr. Achi. She further claims that she never consented to the investment, and that she has been paid but $700 of the amount due, and makes a claim of $5,300, which it is alleged the defendant refuses to pay.

money still due her she had been told that Mr. Castle was not in, and she found it impossible to see aim. Every time however Mr. Weaver, who is in Mr. Castle's office, told her that it was all right and that she would get her maney. Finally she said she called so often that Mr. Weaver became "scared" and sent his wife to meet her. She said she had made several demands for the maney one time in writing but had never received it until new, she was told that he did not owe it to her.

Mrs. Mary Darison, daughter of Mr. Maryano, was put in the stand and related the story of a vicit she had made to the office of Mr. Dartle with her fattlers and had heard pin demand the name? Mr. Carapted was in the office and had heard pin demand the name? Mr. Carapted was in the office and fattle made in the castle could not

In the House there had been nothing done while the action of the Senate upon the amendments to the bill was under consideration. When the business session was taken up Prendergast tried a resolution to have the adjournment at 12 o'clock noon today, but he could not got a hearing. Then a committee of three was provided to call on the Governor and notify him that the Legislature had completed its work. In the meantime there was developed a slight squabble over some clauses which were left out of the ap-propriation bills, in the copying. One of these was a pet bill of Beckley which provides a subsidy for a snip line, and the words "to and return had been put in at his suggestion. But in the bill as signed there were no such words. Other minor words were out and the clerk was directed to notify the Governor what was desired in the mat-

In the House the first thing was the reading of the brief me. . . . g from Mr. to adjourn at once but there was a counter-move from those who thought that the proprietor was the man to pay this kind of thing. They wanted to stay until today, but there was no consideration of the resolution. Then there was a slow count and the result of the hands was seen to be seven two. At the afternoon session there was a crowd. The most of them were in the back of the hall, so that there was a bare quorum. There was some badinage but there was no business. the final adjournment being had at 3:15 o'clock.
